

1 DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: They told us about the 2 fact that these children had not been prepared, that they 3 were coming in raw, that they were ready to answer any 4 questions we asked them. You know what they said? They 5 are not ready to vote. They are not ready to vote. These 6 were children brought in unprepared on the question and 7 their answer was, we agree, we are not ready to vote. It 8 is better to leave it at twenty-one. They think so. We 9 think so. We know that you will think so.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Chair recognizes Delegate Koss for 11 three minutes.

12 DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. Chairman, is that all the 13 time remaining to our side?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: It is.

15 DELEGATE KOSS: I think it appropriate at 16 this point, if I may, to reply to some of the questions
17 that were raised. First of all, let me remind all of 18 you that Georgia lowered voting age in 1943 and Kentucky in 19 1955. Nobody has ever produced to us any dire results
20 as a result of this change.

21 I would also like to point out in terms of the
